Some of the New Summer Wearables

Now of Timely Interest! New Mohair Suits—$30.00

Ideal summer street or travel suits. Mohair is dust shedding and not crush. Several smart models, plaited Jacket with all-around yoke model with button trimming; tailored model with full ripple

New Linen Suits—$14.50 and $17.50 Linen Suits are always most desirable for summer. These are xcellent quality. At $14.50 is a suit with full-ripple jacket, belted in ack, in gold, blue, rose and green with collar, cuffs and band of white. At $17.50 is a suit with plaited jacket, novel yoke back and vide belt and full-flaring skift with tailored belt, in white, natural,

New Silk Motor Coats

New White Chinchilla Coats

New Jersey Silk Coats

Wooltex Pre-Shrunk Wash Skirts

Hundreds and hundreds of these most desirable Skirts in plain and fancy wash gabardine, tennis and racouet cloth, honeycomb, plain and fancy plaue and linen—the skirts which fit when you buy them and AFTER you launder them because the materials have all been preshrunk by the special Wooltex process. Fashionable styles and Wooltex tailoring, $2.85, $3.85, $4.85 and $7.50. Sold exclusively by us in Washington. New colored stripe linen and gabardine skirts and skirts of Silverbloom, the new mohair fabric.

New Corduroy Skirts

Skirts in corduroy, both white and pastel shades in a great variety new models, $5.00, $5.90 and $7.50. White Corduroy Skirts (washe), circular gore, wing pockets and pearl button trimming, are very

New Summer Dresses

Wonderfully attractive assortments—to be specially advertised in orrow's Star. Sale of $40.00 to $55.00 Slik Suits, $34.50. $25.00 and $30.00 Slik Coats, $18.50 and $23.50, from the Wooltex tailors-the biggest event of the season.

We Charge No More

Let it not be supposed that our object in employing most up-to-date methods, highest skilled workmen and best equipped plant for

Cleaning, Repairing & Storing of Oriental Rugs

is to enable us to charge you more. It was primarily to produce better resultsbetter than the best. Having succeeded in this, our facilities have grown so that we are now in position to do every detail of the work in the fireproof Woodward building, charging you no more and in some instances less than those who are compelled to do their work in back yards or in insanitary and unsafe headquarters.

You are cordially invited to see our

NE JIB HEKIMIAN, 1418 H Street N.W.

Phone M. 2063

Estab. 1901

New York Washington Julius Garfinkle and Empany

Smart New Models in SUITS

For Sports, Country, Street, Travel and Dress Wear, including smart cloth, silk and novelty suits. Every new mode originated by French Fashion Leaders finds an immediate presentation here, providing at all times for our patrons a display of the utmost interest. Of particular interest are the exceptionally charming new suits at the following moderate prices:

$28.50, $35.00, $37.50, $40.00, $45.00 and $55.00

We Cordially, Invite Inspection.

FStreet.Corner Thirteenth

Our Fine Pastries Are Served In Our Luncheon Department. You Will Enjoy Reeves-Baked Pies, Cakes and Pastries.

-They are the wholesome, delicious product of carefully selected ingredients - made and baked under perfect conditions and delivered fresh and clean direct from the oven.

When Downtown a loaf of Reeves-Baked

IN AND OUT OF TOWN

Mr. and Mrs. Eustis to Entertain at Dinner in Honor of Secretary and Mrs. Lansing.

Bayly-Taylor Wedding This Evening-Mrs. Peter's Luncheon-Recent Events-Dances-Notes.

The Secretary of State and Mrs. Lansing will be the honor guests at a dinner which Mr. and Mrs. William Cor coran Eustis will give this evening.

One of the most interesting weddings of the spring season will take place this evening, when Miss Hanna Willard Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hannis Taylor, will become the bride of Mr. Charles Clay Bayly.

The ceremony will be performed at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents by Rev. Father E. L. Buckey, assistant pastor of St. Matthew's Church, and a large reception will follow at Rauscher's.

The bride, who has been a great favorite in society since her debut, several years ago, will be escorted by her father.

She will wear an exquisite gown of princess lace with a court train of white seating the second will be second.

princess lace with a court train of white satin. Her tulle veil will be caught with orange blossoms, and she caught with orange blossoms, and she will carry a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and gardenias.

The color scheme of the wedding will be yellow, and that color will predominate in the decorations and dresses worn by the attendants.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Reid Hunt, will be the matron of honor, and her gown will be of rainbow tulle over flesh-color satin. Miss Elena Calderon, the maid of honor, will wear yellow tulle and taffeta, and little Miss Marion Taylor, the bride's niece, will be the tulle and taffeta, and little Miss Marion Taylor, the bride's niece, will be the flower girl. She will wear white transparent cloth and mechlin lace. All the attendants will carry old-fashioned bouquets of yellow roses.

At the reception Mrs. Taylor, mother of the bride, will assist in receiving, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bayly, uncle and aunt of the bride, and his sister. Miss Bayly, will also be in the receiving line.

Mr. Bayly and his bride will reside at the Don Carlos on their return from their wedding trip.

Mrs. Armistead Peter, jr., was hostess at a beautiful luncheon today at Tudor Place, her residence in Georgetown. There were ten guests present, and the table was adorned with quantities of pink spring flowers.

Mrs. William Post, Mrs. Charles J. Oelrichs and Mrs. Andrew Boreland will arrive from New York Wednesday to be the house guests for several days of Mrs. George T. Marye, at her residence, on 18th street.

Mr. and Mrs. William Livingston Crounse have gone to New York to visit Mrs. Crounse's mother, Mrs. John U. Fraley, at the Belnord. They will be guests at the banquet to be given at the Biltmore on Thursday in honor of ex-President Taft. Before returning to Washington Mrs. Crounse will spend a few days in Atlantic City.

Miss Irene Taggart, daughter of Sen-ator and Mrs. Thomas Taggart of In-diana, who has been visiting friends at Indianapolis, returned to Washington Saturday and joined her parents at the New Willard.

Mrs. Alexander Stewart entertained at a large supper party last evening at her residence on Massachusetts avenue.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles W. Richardson will entertain at luncheon Wednesday n honor of the Climatological, Lary gological and Otological Societies at their Connecticut avenue home.

St. Mathias Church, Capitol Heights, Md., was the scene of a pretty wedding Saturday morning, May 6, when Miss Frances T. Curry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank T. Curry, became the bride of Mr. Joseph Harris in the presence of a large gathering of friends. The ceremony, which was followed by a nuptial mass, was performed by Rev. Frank A. Schwallenberg, pastor of the church, assisted by Rev. F. Zumbush. A profusion of pink and white May flowers, ferns, potted plants and a number of lighted tapers made the altar and sanctuary a bower of beauty. The wedding march was played as the bridal party entered the church. The bridal wore a lovely dress of sheer white muli. With this was worn her first communicative of a statement was played as the fattement. St. Mathias Church, Capitol Heights party entered the church. The bride wore a lovely dress of sheer white mull. With this was worn her first communion veil of tulle, which was fastened with white sweet peas. She carried a bouquet of white Killarney roses. A necklace of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom, was her only ornament. Miss Amy Carrick was bridesmaid and she wore a gown of soft pink silk with a bolero and drapery of cream lace. Her large leghorn hat was trimmed with a band of old blue and pink roses and a corsage bouquet of pink sweet peas completed her costime. Mr. G. Quesada was best man. During the ceremony "O Fromise Me" was sung by Miss Leonie Carrick, who also sang "Ave Marie" at the offertory. She was accompanied by Miss Mary Carrick, organist of the church. A breakfast followed for the bridal party at the new home of the couple, 22 Quincy street northeast, this city.

Mrs. Howard P. Beach entertained Mrs. Howard P. Beach entertained her cousin, Miss Louise Thurow of Baltimore, who is spending a fortnight here, Saturday evening in honor of her sixteenth birthday anniversary. Mrs. Rinck, Miss Thurow's aunt, and Miss Foley assisted. Others present were the Misses Elizabeth Foley, Anna Maher, Winifred McMara, Louise Kelly, Catherine Brown, Messrs. Thomas Hopwood, Chancelor Brauner, Paul Beach and Mr. H. P. Beach.

Mrs. Ellen Spencer Mussy has re-turned to the city after spending a week at Harpers Ferry. While there Mrs. Mussy motored with friends over to Sharpsburg and the Antietam bat-tlefield.

Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Albert Jonas entertained a section of the Home Club Players at their residence, 1412 20th street northwest. Mr. Jonas read an original poem, and Mrs. Jonas played several plano selections. Mr. O. W. Goodwin, Mrs. J. Y. Hamilton and Miss Elsie Lancaster also recited. A fancy dance was given by Miss Janiero Brooks. Among others present were Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Moyer, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Winter, Mrs. Margaret Worrell, Miss Margaret Lancaster, Miss Lillian Cleveland and the Misses Florence and Margorie Aubright and Mrs. Brooks.

The Confederate Daughters at the Southern Relief Home, 2403 Pennsylvania avenue, were given a pound party by the Mildred Lee Society, Children of the Confederacy, Friday, May 5, from 4 to 8 p.m., the special features being southern songs, music and dancing by the children, who were in charge of the directress, Mrs. Stephen Harrison Ford.

VISITING HER PARENTS.

Who is the guest of Brig. Gen. and Mrs. Albert L. Mills.

and Mrs. Sam Huston Carr, and a delightful program of Spanish music will be given during the afternoon. The house will be decorated with spring flowers. Dink being the predominating hue.

More Than Fifty Posters

Received in Star Cor

with his brother, Mr. Charles Ropnei, at 1119 6th street northwest.

Miss Marie Charlotte Holzbelerlein, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Holzbelerlein, was married to Mr. Thomas T. Luckett Tuesday evening, May 2, Rev. Richard Schmidt officiating. The ceremony, which was performed at the home of the bride's parents, was witnessed by the families of the young people. The house was beautifully decorated with spring blossoms, palms, ferns, lilles and roses. The bride looked charming in a simple gown of white crepe de chine and she carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and lilles of the valley. She was attended by the bridegroom's sister. Miss Helen Luckett, whose gown was of pink taffeta and who carried a shower bouquet of brink roses. Mr. Henry Holzbelrelint of pink roses and liles of the valley. She was attended by the bridegroom's sister, Miss Helen Luckett, whose gown was of pink taffeta and who carried a shower bouquet of brink roses and liles of the valley. She was attended by the bridegroom's sister, Miss Helen Luckett, whose gown was of pink taffeta and who carried a shower bouquet of brink roses. Mr. Henry Holzbelrelint of pink roses, Mr. Henry Holzbelrelint of pink roses, Mr. Henry Holzbelrelint of pink roses, Mr. Henry Holzbelrelint of pink roses and liles of the valley. She was attended by the bridegroom's sister, Miss groups about the walls of the head-quarters, and the judges—Clifford K. Berryman, cartoonist of The Star; Miss groups about the walls of the Washington Diet Kitchen Association and C. Powell Minnigerode of the Corcoran Art Gallery—are to view them tomorrow.

Marriage Licenses.

Marriage licenses have been issued

Clarence R. Pope and Jeanette Wet terhahn, both of New York city. Duncan Wright and Violet E. oll's, both of Trevilians, Va. Harvey L. Ross of Baltimore Mildred O. Layton of this city, Samuel McWarren of South Hill, Va. and Bessie H. Edmonson of Stony Cross, Va.

Samuel H. Wells and Josephine G. John W. Fulton and Madeline Morse, both of Baltimore, Md. French E. Woodward and Mary R. Knight, both of Stafford Court House, Va. Edwin O. Herren and Pauline Hand-werker.

Births Reported.

The following births have been reported to the health department in the iast twenty-four hours: Alexander Y. P. and Mildred P. Garnett, boy. William and Lillian Cooper, girl. Benjamin and Mary E. Robinson, boy Edward and Maybell Ridgeley, boy. Albert and Margaret Carter, girl.

Deaths Reported,

The following deaths have been reast twenty-four hours: Milo Henry, 27 years, Emergency

Hospital. Jennie E. Robb, 71 years, 924 Penn sylvania avenue southeast. Stella A. Yale, 60 years, 1806 Vernon street northwest. Harry L. Eisner, 44 years, 1231 Potomac street northwest. Charles Smith, 2 years, Providence Hospital.

Fabian S. Columbus, 65 years, Freednen's Hospital. Edward Austin, 65 years, Garfield

Hospital. Clara I. Marr, 60 years, 617 Maryland avenue northeast.

A. H. Winter, Mrs. Margaret Worrell, Miss Margaret Lancaster, Miss Lillian Cleveland and the Misses Florence and Margorie Aubright and Mrs. Brooks.

Mrs. Abner Ferguson and Mrs. Louis Garthe were at home to their friends Thursday afternoon from 4 to 7 at the former's residence on Reno road. The house was artistically decorated with spring flowers. The laddes who assisted them were Mrs. Dwight Scott, Mrs. Philander Johnson, Mrs. Ernest McComas, Mrs. Hal Smith, Mrs. Alfred B. Leet and Miss Loughram. northwest.
Mary Walker, 40 years, Freedmen's Hospital.
Willis J. Turner, 10 months, Burrville, D. C.

New Long Island Sound Chart.

The United States coast and geodetic Mrs. Arthur Guerra will entertain over a hundred guests at tea Sunday, May 14, in honor of her mother, Mrs. Frank Rumble of Philadelphia. The ladies at the tea table will be Mme. de Coronado of considerable importance to mariners.

MRS. E. P. LAURSON,

Received in Star Contest

More than fifty posters sketched by Mr. Nathan Rophel of Philadelphia is in Washington for a visit of one week young artists in the grade schools, with his brother. Mr. Charles Rophel, at high schools and by others not in 1119 6th street northwest.

INTERCEDES FOR GODSON.

Col. G. W. Brackenridge Appeals for Man Held by British.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., May 8.—Efforts were begun today by Col. George W. Brackenridge, banker of this city, to obtain the release of J. B. Starr Hunt, who is reported held at Singapore by British authorities on a charge of promoting rebellion against India. Hunt, who is 26 years old, is a godson of Col. Brackeridge and was born in San Antonio.

Antonio.

Advices to Col. Brackenridge said Hunt shipped as purser on the steamer Maverick, trading between San Francisco and the orient, and which is reported to have been in trouble with British authorities on allegations of blockade running. Hunt's father is an attorney of Mexico City.

Bloodhounds and posses are hunting a man who assaulted seven-year-old Josephine Chapman, near Cumberland, Md.

BABY WEEK TALKS

Addresses on Topics of Interest to Girls of the Public Schools.

This is "Little Mothers' day" in conection with the celebration of Baby week in the District of Columbia, and a program which included talks to the

The girls were told how properly to feed, hold and clothe babies. Suggestions were given them as to the necessity of keeping a baby in the open air and also at what age an infant should be given solid food. Following the addresses the girls asked questions on topics which are of interest to them and the speakers responded, giving the required information.

In the High Schools.

Miss Margaret Thompson spoke to the girls of Central High School in the assembly hall of the school at 9 o'clock. The girls of Western were addressed by Miss Elizabeth Fox in the assembly hall at 9 o'clock. Miss Gaffney, the vis-hall at 9 o'clock. Miss Gaffney, the visiting District nurse, in the section of the Samuel H. Armstrong School, addressed the girls of that institution at 9 o'clock, and Miss Helen Gardner delivered a similar address to the girls of Business High School in the assembly hall at 10 o'clock.

The girl students of the McKinley Manual Training School listened with interest to an address by Miss Elizabeth Fox at 2 o'clock this afternoon in the school assembly hall. About the same time Mrs. Pelton was addressing the girls in the assembly hall of the M Street High School. Miss Braxton addressed the girls of the Seth L. Phelps School on Vermont avenue between T and U streets this afternoon. Mrs. Benjamin speaks at the Myrtilla Miner School on Georgia avenue near Fairmont street also this afternoon.

Programs Elsewhere.

In the graded schools throughout the city today the teachers gave fifteenminute talks to the pupils on the care of the baby. Instructions as to bathing, feeding and in the sleeping of the infant were given.

infant were given.

The girl students of the J. Ormond Wilson Normal School, 11th and Harvard streets, are to be addressed by Miss Neille Reed Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Max West made an address on "Little Mothers' League," shortly after noon today at the central exhibit headquarters, 15th and F streets northwest. Free moving pictures showing the care of babies were shown at several motion picture theaters today, and addresses were given.

dresses were given.
The Montessori method of teaching children is being demonstrated this aft-ernoon by children of the classes now

Your Family Linens Your Blankets Your Lace Curtains

Everything that should go to the laundry will be rightly handled here. Try us.

Best by Test! West End Laundry

1723-25 Pa. Ave. Phone Main 2321.

conducted at Friendship Settlement, Washington Foundling Home and the Children's House on Kalorama road, at the central exhibit room. A similar demonstration is to be given each afternoon at 3 o'clock. The work is to be varied, as it is declared it is impossible to include in a demonstration of one hour the wide range of activity in a Montessori school. The didactic material originated by Dr. Montessori will be exhibited to the public and explained by Miss Roberta Fletcher at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Central Exhibit Program.

A demonstration of "Little Mother Work" is to be given at the central headquarters late this afternoon by Miss Bogel of the Washington diet kitchen.

"Judith and Ariel," a playlet, is to be resented at the central exhibit at 8 clock tonight by children of the Grover Cleveland School.

Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett is to speak n "The Rules of Good Health for Mothers," and will give an exhibition of health exercises at a meeting of the Florence Crittenton Chevy Chase Circle at the home of Mrs. W. S. Corby, Chevy Chase, tonight.

In many of the churches of the city yesterday the pastors took for their sermon subjects some phase of the prosermon subjects some phase of the program of "Baby week."
Walter C. Clephane, Mrs. A. Caminetti and Mrs. Mary Kirwan of the board of charities are to deliver addresses Thursday evening under the auspices of the Home Club of the Interior Department. Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett is to preside.

The Florence Crittenton haby exhibit

The Florence Crittenton baby exhibit is to be given at Julius Lansburgh's store on $th street near F street, under the auspices of the Baby Lovers' Club, Friday and Saturday, from 11 to 5

Banquet l'ea Banquet Tea is from the choice > markets. Carefully selected, thor oughly cleaned by a special vacuum process and carefully sealed with all its original flavor and fragrance, in pound, half-pound and quarter-pound all-metal, airtight tins. Banquet Blend, red label; Banquet India and Ceylon, green label, and Banquet Orange Pekoe.

Ask your grocer for BANQUET offerings of the Orient's greates

McCormick & Co., Balto., Md

MAY 28TH

Yes, it will soon be time to put the blankets away for the summer---almost as soon as you can have them properly washed.

> They'll come home soft and fluffy, as well as clean, if you put them with the other washables and

---send them to the laundry!

> Washington Laundries are systematically inspected by the District Health Department establishment—one of the most interesting stores in the National Capital—devoted to Fine China, .' Crystal and Art Wares from all countries.

OUR PUBLIC REST ROOM

is an ideal place to meet your friends and enjoy a period of rest amongst beautiful en-

